Invitation to a Night with Gordon Gekko (Michael Douglas).

Gordon Gekko is out of jail, allowing Michael Douglas to return to Wall Street, and he is back with a simple message:

“I once said greed is good... but now it seems it’s legal.”

AFTINET invites you to a film night fundraiser featuring Wall Street 2 – Money Never Sleeps.

As the global economy teeters on the brink of the GFC disaster, a young Wall Street trader hooks up with disgraced former Wall Street corporate raider Gordon Gekko.

It’s an age that makes even Gekko blush. Upon his release from jail he seeks to make a buck not from the markets but from royalties from his new book, a condemnation of the greed he formerly endorsed. Gekko’s only priority, it seems, is to reconnect with the daughter he abandoned, the young trader’s fiancée, Winnie. He is on a mission to alert the financial community to the coming doom and to find out who was responsible for the death of the young trader’s mentor.

The movie examines the role played by fictionalised versions of Bear-Sterns, Lehman Brothers, JP Morgan, the real estate industry and others in the GFC.

Date: Monday, 27th September 2010.

Time: 6:30pm start to movie.

Venue: Dendy Opera Quays - Shop 9, 2 East Circular Quay, Sydney NSW 2000 (on the promenade leading towards the Sydney Opera House from Circular Quay).

Cost: $20 per ticket.

For any inquiries please contact the AFTINET office on 02 9212 7242.

Also appearing in the movie are:

Josh Brolin plays Bretton James, the villain of the movie.

Shia LaBeouf is Jake Moore, the young hotshot, who teams with Gekko.

Carey Mulligan portrays Winnie Gekko, Gordon’s estranged daughter.

Frank Langella will play Lewis Zabel, Jacob’s mentor who commits suicide.

Susan Sarandon portrays Sylvia Moore, Jacob’s real-estate agent mother.

Charlie Sheen will reprise his role as Bud Fox in a cameo appearance.

And we get to give the raspberry to Donald Trump, when he appears.
